Index

ABRSM Practical Musicianship examinations, 135–137
Action: Education and the Arts (1985), 33
Addison, Richard (obituary), 2
African music education, 111–121; developments in, 118–119; creative potential in, 259; music education in South Africa, 255–261
Afro-Americans, 256; musical influence of the protestant church upon, 256 America, music education in, 279 analysis, 108
ancient Egypt, music in, 189–195
Arts and the Adolescent (Project), 51
Arts in Schools (1982), 33 arts in society, 51
assessment of performance, 97 attitudes of A-level students, 205–211; research project, 206 audio technology, 147
aural acuity in music, 104
autism, 276–277

Bachelor of Education degree, 26–27 beliefs, assumptions and values in teacher practice, 10, 11, 37, 42 boys' musical interests, teachers' perceptions of, 231–235 brass instruments, boys' apparent preference for, 215, 244
British Music Educators' Conference, 263
BTEC (in music), 30

Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation, 33 Canterbury (New Zealand), 69–70 child centred education, 163 clarinet repertoire, 139–140 composing in the classroom, 157, 231, 240; course materials for, 275–276; relative interests of girls and boys, 236, 237–238, 245, 250 composition courses in higher education, 181, 185, 274–275 computers in education, 124; boys' confidence with, 131 Computer Aided Learning (CAL), 90 conducting skills, evaluation of, 57–63 Conducting Workshops Survey, 60 conservatoires; music teachers recruited from, 3–4; ideas of music education modelled upon, 50–51, 53; links with university music departments, 5; postgraduate courses, 25 creative music projects, 65–66 creativity in classroom music making, 235–237 Criterion Referenced Music Tests, 35, 38 cross-curricular links, 66
CSOUND, 89
Cultural Studies Programme (Ghana), 111–112, 115, 117 cultural studies, music as a part of, 111–112 culture, 'beautiful' aspects of, 117 Curriculum Enrichment Programme (Ghana), 111 Curriculum Revision Programme (Ghana), 111 dancing, male and female attitudes towards, 243, 253 (n. 13) degree programmes, 24–27, 163, 164, 181

Early Childhood Association, The, 28
Education and the Arts: National Report (1977) (Australia Council), 48

 Copyright © 1993 Cambridge University Press education funding, restraints in, 43 electroacoustic music, studies and courses for, 85–90 encounter, role of in the music curriculum, 45 ensembles, participation in most likely to produce positive attitudes, 39; music teachers' achievements with, 492 equal opportunities, statutory requirements for, 163, 164, 265 ethnocentricity in music criticism, 166, 167 ethnomusicology, 257; method of, 164 European values in music and education, 112, 113, 278 feminist music criticism, 169–180; Black feminist critique, 253 (n. 16); theory of in music education, 170–171, 220; in musicology, 172; politics of, 173–177, 201; contrasted with masculinist music criticism, 172 flute; repertoire, 139, 140; technique, 141–142; girls' apparent preference for, 215 folk music, 160, 166; African, 114; arrangements for woodwind, 139; mingling of male and female musical creativity, 156

gamelan, 29, 64; notation for, 107
GCSE, 4, 6, 73–84, 103, 210, 231, 250, 266; rock and pop music as motivation for, 240, 242–243; as a preparation for future music study, 82–83, 209; relative numbers of girls and boys taking music, 124, 131, 220, 234 Gender and Educational Computing in the Humanities (Project, University of Leicester), 126–132 gender issues in music education, 123, 124, 151–152, 202–203; research into, 219–253; relative achievements of girls and boys, 222–223; gender and technology, 125–126; in choice of musical instruments, 213, 246 Ghana, music education in, 111–121, 258; a challenge for, 119–120
Ghana Music Teachers' Association, 112, 117 girls' musical interests, teachers' perceptions of, 227–231 graphic scores, 125
'great' music, 154–155, 159
Griffith University, Queensland, study of generalist teacher training, 34–45 harmony and counterpoint, importance of to school students, 82; confidence with, 209 Higher Education, College of (music programme), 23–31; recruitment to, 23–24 history of music, teaching of, 4; in higher education, 181, 183–184, 185 HMI, reports on teacher performance, 6 imagination, aural (exercises in), 137–138 Indian music and dance, 29 initial training (of teachers); appraisal of, 7; modelling music curriculum for, 42–45 in-service courses for teachers, 27–28, 158, 264; modular, 270 instruction; role of in the music curriculum, 45, 47; in training conductors, 61 instrumental teaching, 26, 266–267; marketing management for, 267–268; strings, 91–102, 264; in British school system, 101; string repertoire, 281–283; woodwind repertoire, 138–141; brass repertoire, 284–287; horn technique, 283–284; children's preferences for certain instruments, 213–217; relative success and interest of girls in, 226–227, 232; take up of, 249 jazz, 140–141, 285; Women's Jazz Archive, 151; women musicians, 219, 221, 227, 253 (n. 5); jazz-guitar, 280–281 kinaesthesia, 108, 109, 110

language and gender in music, 198–200 Liszt, 68–69
learning, process of, 47; psychology of, 101 listening and appraising skills, 65, 74, 75–77, 103–110, 230 logical thinking highly valued in education, 165

Manhattanville Music Curriculum Project, 48
Mellers, Wilfrid, innovations in higher music education, 4 MIDI, 89, 90
multi-cultural schools, 189, 247, 265 musical experience, nature of, 271–272 music appreciation, 165, 273–274
Music Attitude Questionnaire, 35, 36, 39, 40
Music Background Information Questionnaire, 35, 39 musicianship of teachers, 10–11 music classroom environment, 40 music courses, relevance and nature of, 40 music education; a holistic approach to, 52, 159, 163–167; relationship with general educational research and theory, 53; objectives of, 115
Music and Gender; conference, London, 1991, 181; research project, 197–198, 202–203
Music, Gender and Education (Conference, University of Bristol, 1993), 151–152; information pack, 200 music literacy, 256
Music Masters Association, The, 67, 68
music, role of in College of Higher Education, 23 Music Teaching Video Observation Questionnaire, 35 music technology, 5, 85, 123, 124–125; 'Electronic Day' (at Worcester College of HE), 28; included in GCSE, 234; affinity with creativity, 237; girls and, 253 (n. 6) music therapy, 276–277

National Curriculum, 4, 28, 66, 123, 131, 163, 266; provision of music for all children, 264; performance element, 101; Orders for Music (DES 1992), 124; in multi-cultural and multi-faith schools; course materials for, 272–273, 275–276
National Southern African Music Educators' Society Conferences, 257, 258, 260
New Teacher in School, The, 6 notation, 104–107, 125, 231, 240, 249, 275; oral notation (Afghanistan), 107 Notes on Education and Research in African Music (1975), 116 patronage, 155

performing, composing, listening, 47, 74–81, 264 Perspectives of Social Anthropology in the Teaching and Learning of Music (1984), (Wesleyan Symposium), 257 PGCE, 7, 26, 27, 30, 57, 58, 59, 62, 63, 103, 163, 268 philosophical orientation of teachers, 10 piano repertoire, 143–147 playgroups, music making in, 157 playing by ear, 240
polytechnics, 5
pop music, 241
Popular Music studies, 164, 165 practising musical instruments; research into, 91; significance of memory in, 91; effects of varied practice, 94, 100 preference, musical, 36–37 prejudice against women musicians, 189, 196 primary schools, music in, 36; training for, 27, 33–46; generalist teachers in, 34; unsatisfactory quality of arts teaching in, 34 public schools (English), music in, 66–68

'Q' research methodology (of William Stephenson), 206–207 quality of arts education, 33–34 recorder playing (repertoire), 138–139, 142–143, 247

Report of the Education Commission on Basic Education (1986) (Ghana), 111
Report of Teacher Education in Queensland (1988), 34, 39
Report of the Task Force on Education and the Arts (1985), 34 reports, HMI, 6
Review of Arts Education and Training (1985), 33 resources for music in schools, 265 rock music in schools, 239, 244; for brass, 285 role-models (provided by teachers), 244 schema theory (in string teaching), 91–102 Secondary Schools, 1982–1986, 6

Standards in Education, 1977–88, 6 sexuality and music, 194–195, 220, 242–244 singing in schools, 112, 264; language of songs, 199; success and interest of girls in, 225–226, 230; boys' attitudes to, 233–234; rock band vocals, 239 soundscape, changes in the, 137–138 standards in teaching, 6–7, 33 student teachers; as learners, 12–13; their opinions of training programmes, 37 styles, musical, 273–274 supervision of teachers in training, 7 support services for music education in schools, 263 Survey and Report on the Needs and Priorities for Research in Arts Education in Australia (1981), 33
Swanwick, K. and Tillman, J., Model of Musical Development, 43–44; teacher education, developments in, 3–4, 33–46; requirements of, 7–8, 35–36; in British Columbia, 9–21; Secondary, in New South Wales, 47–55; in Queensland, 34; course description, 15–21; partnership with university, 14 teachers; musical preparation of, 3, 9, 10–11, 38–39, 43; trained as instrumentalists, 49; as composers, 49–50; as conductors, 57–63; preparation for the classroom, 6; learning from experience, 10; confidence with arts teaching in the primary school, 34, 37 Teaching Methodology in Electro-acoustic Music in Higher Education (Project), 85 theory of music, 47

theory and practice of music education, 9, 11–12, 53 traditional musical skills, 125, 257
TVEI, 30, 125

UK Council for Music Education and Training, 263, 269, 270 universities, developments in higher musical education, 4–5 university system, changes in, 5 video recording (as a means of self assessment), 57–58, 60–62

Wales, music in, 70, 123 western classical music, 112, 169, 219, 240, 245–246; aesthetics of, 277–279; influence upon notation, 256–257 women composers, 151, 153–161, 219; resources for the study of, 181–182, 184; attitudes towards, 182–184; University of Huddersfield project, 184–187 writing about music education, 112–119